STORIA

La Mass Srl (Manifatture Abbigliamento Sportivo Srl) nasce nel 2005, l'azienda distribuisce prodotti tecnici di abbigliamento sportivo a marchio Mass, brand leader riconosciuto e apprezzato sia sul piano nazionale che su quello internazionale.

L'azienda è il risultato di una fusione di due anime, una produttiva e l'altra commerciale, entrambe già consumate interpreti del settore dell'abbigliamento sportivo, ideale complemento per un'azienda di successo, quale poi la Mass si è rivelata.

Mass muove i suoi primi passi ad Anagni (FR), emergendo ben presto come una realtà giovane, dinamica, pur solidamente strutturata.

Il 2005 è già un anno fondamentale: gli sforzi per raggiungere un design ricercato, un ottimo rapporto qualità-prezzo ed un livello di servizio già apprezzabile, proiettano l'azienda ai vertici del panorama distributivo italiano, nel contempo la propizia sponsorizzazione dell' A.C. Siena, allora militante nella massima serie calcistica italiana, favorisce il raggiungimento di un'elevata notorietà nazionale.

Negli anni successivi la Mass è impegnata ad ampliare la propria rete di vendita internazionale, raggiungendo in breve tempo traguardi impensabili solo pochi anni prima e arrivando a distribuire il proprio prodotto in oltre 40 Paesi del Mondo. Nello stesso tempo, viene realizzata anche una importante estensione di linea, integrando il proprio catalogo, sino ad allora principalmente focalizzato sul calcio, con gli sport del basket, del volley e dell'atletica.

Un anno non privo di rilevanza è il 2007, allorché le quote aziendali sono rilevate completamente dall'attuale proprietà, che da allora ha cominciato una importante politica di ottimizzazione delle risorse, senza disdegnare tuttavia rilevanti investimenti (su tutti, le sponsorizzazioni eccellenti del Brescia Calcio e del Copra volley Piacenza, la ricerca sui prodotti e sui tessuti, oltre che non trascurabili acquisizioni immobiliari).

Lo scudetto del Copra Volley Piacenza del 2009 (e successiva partecipazione alla CEV Champions League) associato alla promozione in serie A del Brescia nel 2010 rappresentano ulteriori elementi di crescita e di rafforzamento dell'immagine aziendale, cui si aggiungono le prestigiose sponsorizzazioni del Benevento Calcio e del Foggia Calcio.

Infine il 2011 è l'anno del trasferimento delle sedi aziendali in Battipaglia (SA), usufruendo di nuovi e moderni spazi di stoccaggio delle merci, aree espositive ed uffici per un totale di oltre 5.000 mq, cui va aggiunto un nuovo e funzionale laboratorio interno per lavorazioni sartoriali e personalizzazioni, ancora in fase di sviluppo, che diventerà il punto focale della vocazione aziendale al servizio ai clienti.

Dal 2012 comincia una straordinaria storia di successi, con la sponsorizzazione della Rebecchi Nordmeccanica Volley di Piacenza, campione nel volley femminile, nel 2013, Campionato e Coppa Italia, nel 2014, Campionato, Coppa Italia e Supercoppa Italiana e nel 2015, Supercoppa Italiana

HISTORY

Mass S.r.l. (Manifatture Abbigliamento Sportivo S.r.l.) was founded in 2005. The company distributes technical sports apparel bearing the Mass label and is a leading brand recognised and appreciated nationally and internationally.

The company is the result of a fusion of two souls, a productive one and a commercial one, both already consummate players in the sports apparel sector, the ideal complement for a successful business Mass later turned out to be.

Mass started out in Anagni, near Frosinone, and soon emerged as a young, dynamic organisation with a sound structure.

The year 2005 was a fundamental year: the efforts put into delivering a sophisticated design, very good value for the money and a level of service that was already appreciated projected the company to the peaks of the sports apparel distribution sector in Italy. At the same time, the favourable sponsorship of A.C. Siena, playing in Italy's Serie A soccer championship at the time, helped it to become very well-known nationally.

In the following years, Mass was committed to expanding its international sales network, and did not take long to reach targets that were unthinkable only a few years earlier. It is now distributing its products in over 40 countries around the world. At the same time, it managed to achieve an important expansion of its line, by supplementing its catalogue, which up until then had primarily been focussed on soccer, with basketball, volleyball and athletics sports apparel.

One year which was not irrelevant was 2007, when all company shares were acquired by the current owner. Since then the company has introduced an important policy of making the best of resources, without neglecting making considerable investments (above all, prominent sponsorships of Brescia Calcio and Copra Volley Piacenza, research into products and cloths, and some real estate acquisitions).

The championship of Copra Volley Piacenza in 2009 (and subsequent participation in the CEV Champions League) along with Brescia's promotion to Serie A in 2010 are additional elements of growth and strengthening of the company's image. Its sponsorships of Benevento Calcio and Foggia Calcio are also important.

Finally 2011 was the year the company's head office was moved to Battipaglia, Salerno, into more modern spaces with storage of goods, display and office areas with a total of 5,000 sq. m. An additional functional in-house sartorial and personalisation work shop, still in the development stage, shall become the focus point of the company's vocation at the service of its customers.

Since 2012 starts on extraordinary story of success sponsoring the Rebecchi Nordmeccanica Volley Piacenza, champion in women's volleyball; in the year 2013 Championship and Italian Cup; in the year 2014 Championship, Italian Cup and Italian Super Cup; in the year 2015 Italian Super Cup.

The background is a textured, light grey surface. On the left side, there are large, irregular brown splatters and streaks, resembling ink or paint. On the right side, there is a pattern of small, dark grey dots arranged in a grid-like fashion, with the dots becoming larger and more prominent towards the bottom right corner.

“ Lo sport forgia l'identità e consente di accedere alla parte ideale di noi.
La nostra visione risiede nell'orgoglio di sostenere questi valori e nella sfida di vincere se stessi, nel gioco e nella vita.

*Sport strengthens the identity and allows access to the best of us.
Our vision lies in the pride of supporting these values and in the challenge of winning, in sport and in life.* ”
